Study 28: Jihād — at Madinah

- After the Muslims reached Madinah, a struggle for national existence was forced on them, and they had to take up the fight by arms in self-defence.
- This struggle was also called, and rightly so, by the name of jihād; but even in the Madinah chapters of the Quran this word is used in the wider sense of a struggle carried on by words or deeds of any kind.
- The following words from a verse may be quoted, which occurs twice in the Quran:

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ جَاهِدِ الْكُفَّارَ وَالْمُنَافِقِينَ وَاغْلُظْ عَلَيْهِمْ ط ...

“O Prophet, Strive hard (jāhid) against the disbelievers and the hypocrites, and be firm against them. ...” — 9:73, see also 66:9

- Here the Holy Prophet ﷺ is commanded to carry on a jihād against both unbelievers and hypocrites.
- The hypocrites were those who were outwardly Muslims and lived among Muslims, and were treated like Muslims in all respects. They came to the mosque and prayed with the Muslims. They even paid the zakāt.

- A war against them was unthinkable, and none was ever undertaken.
- On the other hand, they sometimes fought alongside the Muslims against the unbelievers. Therefore the command to carry on a jihād against both unbelievers and hypocrites could not mean the waging of war against them.
- It was a jihād to be carried on by means of the Quran, as directly stated in verse 25:52 which we quoted at the end of the last Study. It was to strive hard to win them over to Islam.

- In fact, the word jihād is almost always used in the general sense of striving hard, and that can include fighting where the context so requires. The Quran contains following description in an early revelation at Madinah:

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَالَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا وَجَاهَدُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ...

“Surely those who believe and those who fled (their homes) and strove hard (jāhadū) in Allah’s way ...” — 2:218

- These words also occur in two other revelations at Madinah: 8:74 and 9:20. The second of these is a very late revelation.

- This “striving in Allah’s way”, mentioned above, applied as much to the fighters as to those who carried on the struggle against unbelief and evil in other ways.
- In a chapter revealed at Madinah, Muslims are told:

تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَتُجَاهِدُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ<sup>ط</sup>
 ذِكْرٌ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١١﴾

“You should believe in Allah and His Messenger, and strive hard in Allah’s way with your wealth and your lives.

That is better for you, if you but knew!”

— 61:11

- Three verses later, in verse 14, it is stated how that striving is to be done. It is to be done as follows:

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُونُوا أَنْصَارَ اللَّهِ كَمَا قَالَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ لِحَوَارِيِّينَ مَنْ أَنْصَارِي إِلَى اللَّهِ<sup>ط</sup>
قَالَ الْحَوَارِيُّونَ نَحْنُ أَنْصَارُ اللَّهِ ...

“O you who believe, be helpers (in the cause) of Allah,

as Jesus, son of Mary, said to the disciples:

Who are my helpers in the cause of Allah?

The disciples said: We are helpers (in the cause) of Allah. ...”

— 61:14

- The striving hard, or jihād, of verse 11 is explained in verse 14 as making yourselves helpers in the cause of Allah as the disciples of Jesus responded to his call to be helpers in the Divine cause.
- The disciples of Jesus were not asked by him to fight in any battle with weapons. They helped the cause of truth by propagating his message in the face of persecution and the utmost difficulties. Muslims are here told to follow their example.

- In Hadith too, the word jihād is used not only for fighting (the fighting which is limited to self-defence) but for other kinds of striving as well. It is reported:
  - “A man came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked his permission for jihād. He asked: Are your parents alive? The man said, Yes. He said: Then do jihād in their way.”
(Bukhari, hadith 3004)

The words “do jihād in their way” can only mean “exert yourself in the service of your parents”. This is what everyone takes these words to mean.

- The Holy Prophet's wife Hazrat Aishah asked him:
  - “We consider jihād (of fighting) to be the most excellent of all deeds. Should we not then engage in jihād?”

He replied:

- “No, the most excellent jihād is the properly-performed Pilgrimage (ḥajj mabrūr).”

(Bukhari, hadith 1520)

- A man asked the Prophet ﷺ:
“Which jihād is the most excellent?” He replied:
  - “It is to say a word of truth before an unjust ruler.”
(Nasā’i, hadith 4209)
- Some decades after the death of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, there was some warfare between two factions of Muslims. Abdullah ibn Umar, the son of Hazrat Umar, refused to join either side in fighting against the other. He was asked by some people:
  - “Why have you discarded jihād when you know how much Allah has encouraged jihād?”

- He replied:
  - “Islam is based on five things: Belief in God and His messenger, five prayers, fasting in Ramadan, giving zakāt, and the Pilgrimage to the House of God.”
(Bukhari, hadith 4513, 4514)
- Abdullah ibn Umar thus told them that the jihād of fighting is not included in the five pillars of Islam.
